THE EVENT

"WHAT DAVOS IS TO WORLD ECONOMICS, CALLED TO WEALTH IS TO KINGDOM ECONOMICS."

For five remarkable years, we gathered on the beautiful island of Aruba.

Now, the movement is coming home. For the first time in its 12-year history, the Called to Wealth International Summit is being hosted on U.S. soil. This is not just a change in location; it is a prophetic shift. We are convening at The Consulate, our new, miraculously-acquired 84,720 sq. ft. Kingdom economic command center.

This facility was originally built as the U.S. flagship showroom for Teknion, a global leader in architectural design and innovation. It is a space literally constructed to showcase excellence, structure, and world-class vision. Today, it has been consecrated for a new purpose: to be the place where Kingdom leaders come to design their future and architect a lasting legacy.

This historic gathering will convene faith-driven entrepreneurs, legacy-minded investors, and global reformers to receive the divine blueprints for the greatest wealth transfer the world has ever seen.

The blueprints for the future of Kingdom economics are being drawn here. This is your invitation to be in the room where it happens.
